Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm a very bubbly person, who likes interacting with people for social and also formal reasons. I'm a curious person who always wants to learn and know about things, I like being informed about what is happening around me, especially with stuff that can affect me and the people around me. I'm a very adaptive person who always makes way to fit in wherever I need to, whether it's higher or lower environment. I like reading, gathering facts and looking for opportunities on things that can help wherever and whenever. I'm a creative and critical thinker, in a sense of I always think of now and later in the process because time is not always about what's happening now, something can be good now but in the long run it could be messed up, so you need to balance and open your way of thinking. I'm also a go getter, whereas I know it is a good and bad thing but I've always heard that sometimes you need to be ruthless to get what you want that's a mind of a critical thinker. I'm a person who doesn't think he knows everything, I like learning and building myself, listening and speaking are two powerful tools so yes with knowledge a person can be wise and can adapt in every situation.
