What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for an administrative job where I will be working as a clerk or receptionist, I have five years of experience in medical administration but my potential is not only limited for a medical space only, as a young woman I would like to explore and expand in any field as far as admin is concerned. I am very open minded and focused, I work hard and I can develop the skills to administrate my work for the good of the company, I am a brilliant and vibrant young lady and can work well with other people. I am useful and reliable.
