What job i'm looking for? My positive points

The job of my choice is to be a diesel mechanic, I have a semi skilled qualification of diesel mechanic. It will be a great pleasure if you take me because I'm a very hard working person , I'm flexible , since I was young my passion was to become a diesel mechanic and that has never changed since then. I dont care how much is earned , all I want is to be around that section to learn , to gain more experience , when it comes to mechanic I easily adapt, I really enjoy working with tools. It would be a great pleasure if you take me as your worker.
