Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

> Customer care and relationship building within and outside the workplace is key to my success.

> I am reliable, trustworthy, transparent, consistent and does not rely on anyone else to see a job well done and keeping management informed every step of the way.

> Being analytical is one focal point when making decisions or resolving a conflict because I at all times weigh the pros and cons and do not jump to the first solution of a problem that presents itself, due consideration is taken into account pertaining the short- and long-term benefits of a solution against all its possible negatives and must be in line with company goals and objectives.

> My motivation and continued success is attributed by my enthusiasm and willingness to ask questions and always to that little bit extra on every job.

> The fact that am goal-oriented and dedicated provides me with the ability to never back off when a problem becomes tough whatever it takes in time and effort is to see a project through to completion, on deadline.

> I take pride in a job well done, always taking the extra step to make sure the job is done to the best of my ability and paying attention to every detail.

> Listening is a skill I have by now mastered as opposed to waiting for my turn to speak.

> I am a team player, I do not get rattled, have self confidence without self-importance and more than ever, have the ability to talk and write to people at all levels in a company.
