What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Good evening.I am looking for a job with a preference in finance which I have many years of experience in.I am currently employed by the South African Police Service and love my job but unfortunately I am a single parent and can not afford just the necessity for my children.Both my kids Excell academically and I feel guilty that I won't be able to afford tertiary education due to the Salary I receive.At the moment my medical is subsidized by the state and I do not pay much for transport to work, but due to my living expenses and providing financially for my children as well as my mum is very difficult.Therefore if I do receive employment at your company it must be enough to compensate me for all my other expenses that I will incur.I am indeed a hard worker and will no doubt be an asset to the organization.I am able to work well under pressure and not afraid of a challenge.I urge you to please select me for an interview at your organization.You will not be disappointed.I have almost 17 years financial experience at the Saps alone but have experience in the private sector as well.I perform duties in finance as well as administration.Please allow me an opportunity to prove myself.

Kind Regards

N.Vershala
