What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a Code8/10 driving job

I am a people's person, tactful and well mannered who knows how to interact with people. I take pride in my work, always ensuring that my employer and supervisors are satisfied with my performance. I always put their interest and the interests of the company ahead of mine. As a hard worker, I appreciate challenges. I am able to work without supervision.

I believe I will fit the driver position perfectly due to my extensive experience of being a driver and Tour guide in the Western Cape and South Africa as a whole. I'm experience in both short and long distant driving. I would be happy if you could offer me employment in the driver position, I would feel privileged to be a part of a professional organization such as yours and would to make a career working in your organization.

Thank you for your attention and I hope that my application will be successful.

Yours faithfully
