What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for a job in the line of building maintenance or plumbing as my strong points are working with my hands and maintaining things. I need a job to be able to support my family as I'm the only one who works. I'm a very hard worker who is self driven and sticks to goals, I believe in having integrity at my work place and respect. I will be a asset to any company for the simple reason that I'm a very quick learner and can do anything I put my mind to.
