What job i'm looking for? My positive points

To whom it may concern,

Thank you for considering my application for the position of Brand Manager. In tandem with my credentials, which you will be pleased to find attached, I present here a personal reflection on my character and ideal qualifications for this role.

I have demonstrated my capabilities of working and excelling in various environments and within 2 years of working as a pharmaceutical detail rep, I was promoted to the role of pharmaceutical product marketing brand manager. One of my latest achievements is the successful execution of the Sinupret Plus TV commercial.

I have extensive academic knowledge, including HIV, TB and Immunology. Not only am I successful and passionate performing experiments independently but I have also proved to be an excellent and outgoing salesperson who is very much a team player.

Although I have an Infectious Diseases and Immunology background at MSc level, I am also an activist at heart. From the age of 16 and for the past 11 years, I have been an active member of The Inner Circle/ Al-Ghurbaah Foundation, an LGBTIQ+ organisation, primarily, but not limited to, supporting Muslims who are marginalised for identifying as different sexualities and gender identities.

I believe that my personal journey, dedication and achievements to date is reflective of my commitment to any organisation that I may serve.

I am therefore confident that I will be an asset to Adcock Ingram and will make a success of my position, as I have made with all of my opportunities and endeavours to date.

Yours in anticipation of a favourable response,

Reyaaz Davids
