What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Ancillary nurse, because I like taking care of people. when I grew up, my mother was not around and grandma took care of us. when I became older I took care of grandma together with my siblings. I cook for them and did another house chores. And also take them to the hospital if they need medical attention. I also make sure that they take their medicine on time, especially grandma until she died at 2015.
