Work experience

Working period	nuo 2007 iki 2020
Company name	Metrofile
You were working at:	Computer operator
Occupation	Data Capturer
What you did at this job position?	I requested important information for clients and dispatched the documents with the internal system. Later on I was given the opportunity to work closely with the banks. I maintained a professional relationship with coworkers and client and was again given a responsible role to oversee operations between Metrofile and Standard Bank active filing. Which means all reporting to the client and senior management. I was provided with a petrol allowance to travel between branches and had to sit in teams meetings daily reporting on any issues or client operations. I had to pull information from various different systems to compile accurate reports for daily stats to my managers. I was given access to multiple sections within the business to ensure that I can productively complete all my duties. I was not given a new title however I became the go-to person between the Standard Bank and Metrofile. All reported issues were sent to my attention and I was given the opportunity to assist management in resolving any arising issue proactively.
