What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a general job. Actually I like cooking because I know that I am the best at this one .I was even planning to open my own business but because of financial issues. Uhm still thinking about it. So all I can say is that any job that comes my way.i will take it.and I am a person who like people, and to hear their advice. I am an honest person, a person who takes her job seriously and I am always on time I am a focused person. So by hiring me you would not regret it thank you.
