What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Currently, I am an Admin Clerk at Vista Private Clinic from 2012. I really enjoy working with different people, the doctors, psychologist, patients and many more clients that I interact with throughout the day. Everyday it's a different day with different challenges. My passion is to show people their value, that's why I try never to walk away without imparting something of value into a person/colleague or vice versa. I fully believe relationship is a key in building trust and carries with integrity a positive impression of the institutions image and reputation. I strongly believe in not only one's constant own growth, but those around us as well.

Being given the role of Training facilitator & Employment Equity officer has made me a stronger and patient person. It has introduced me to different levels of education & it has thought me how to behave in different situations. It has been an honor for me.
