Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Kindly looking to be positioned in mechanical engineering field, unfortunately I have no experience pertaining to the field, I have the percentage of theoretical only. I do have experience in working environment.

I would describe myself as positive, forward thinking and innovative person. Who works very well either on my or as part of a team. I have a very strong communication skill, I always take ownership of difficult challenges and I take responsibility for my own learning and development.

I want to work for you because having researched your company prior the application, I believe your workplace values and high standards you set are a match for my own. You're forward thinking and innovative, and clearly you creating products and services that your customers love. This is important to me because I want to work where I will be able to work on exciting tasks and projects and where I will get to collaborate with other like-minded people like me.

Thank you
