What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for a carer job whereby I can look after children and care for them. I am good with children as I have worked in a Home consisting of children from age of six upwards. I used to look after 11 children in total and I would feed, clothe, bath, and stimulate them. Working in such an environment where all the children dependent on me helped me cope with pressure, be fast paced, punctual and be able to work independently. I gave each and every one of them love and care. I can also work as a General worker as I have the qualities of being a General worker, I have worked in a formal environment whereby health department and mental department used to inspect our workplace all the time, ensuring that we follow the workplace rules effectively and accurately.
