What job i'm looking for? My positive points

As someone who is still at entry level in the agricultural industry and an aspiring farmer, i am not looking for a specific position but rather i am looking for any type of a job in a farm or agriculture related environment. I have done both animal and plant sciences, also i have majored in agricultural economics/management therefore i am open to general work all the way to office work. I am willing to start right at the bottom to make sure that i pave my way up through dedication and hard work.
