underpinned by a wealth of knowledge in a variety of fashion design fundamental areas necessary to propel me into greater heights in the beauty and fashion sector. These fundamental areas include valuable concepts in product specification; pattern making and garment construction, design software applications are used to create trendy designs according to client's specification; fashion management and merchandising; and fashion marketing.

Over the past few years, I have positioned myself to be the right candidate for the job as I have a strong passion for creative thinking and innovative problem solving. I have occupied the role of being a salesperson at a fashion house, whereby I harnessed exceptional organisational and time management skills and also the ability to collaborate with my team members to deliver quality results. The position has consistently been challenging and has afforded me the opportunity to drastically improve my ability to deliver quality customer services. Furthermore, as a fashion design graduate, I have been volunteering to assist with bridal beadwork, lace work and sewing to ensure that my skills and knowledge remains relevant and sharp.

I am looking forward to hearing from you and hope this letter and resume provides me with an
