What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I studied commerce at high school and did very well. Then went to university of Venda where I'm doing accounting science. Chose this degree because i heard it's challenging and i love challenges. This far i can tell you I'm someone who get along with anyone, who is always willing to assist others and someone who manages their work and study time with efficiency so that i don't leave one behind. I'm someone who will take any job/learnership they think will give them experience that will make them a desirable candidate when venture for my dream.
