What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Right now I'm working for a biggest online stores in cape town as a DC assistant, but for me I believe in growth and doing more. I have gained so much work working as a warehouse assistance because I'm now able to deal with all customer issues and how to come up with solutions. If given any chance I would be a good individual to your company. I can work well under pressure because I can use the pressure I have to finish the work. I work well as an individual and as a team also. I have basic computer skills and a fast learner too.
