Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

As a seasoned technician at the South African National Biodiversity Institute (SANBI), I bring a wealth of expertise to the intersection of technology and botany. Armed with a master's degree in botany, my academic foundation is complemented by a significant milestone – the publication of a scientific paper that reflects my commitment to advancing knowledge in the field. Beyond academia, my professional toolkit extends to environmental impact assessment (EIA), substantiated by a relevant certification and a comprehensive portfolio of successful EIA studies. My versatile skill set encompasses the ability to undertake rigorous research and translate findings into insightful reports. I am dedicated to contributing to both the scientific community and the environmental sector, leveraging my diverse background to make meaningful strides in botanical research and sustainable development.
