What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Believe I would be an asset to your department or organization i have studied Public Management and Office Administration at an college tvet . I am also skilled in computer practice and skills, Office practice, business practice. I have greater understanding in management communication and Public Administration which I developed through Public Management and Office Administration. At this moment I'm looking for internship for Public Management N6,I completed on 2023 and I'm awaiting for graduation. My goal is to gain experience on Public management work because I have no experience so working environment would be a honor. I'm productive and when I set my mind on something I make sure I completed it within the given period, I'm that person who doesn't understand an task i ask for help and I believe in team and delegation, I'm self motivated,cooperative,I'm honesty,i will be handworking person towards my career.In conclusion, I hope to get the opportunity to work at your organization or company.
