Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I wish to apply my diverse technical / commercial skills and knowledge in an environment which yields both self-development and financial results, through teamwork, dedication and self-motivation.

As an integral member of the automotive manufacturing sector, I have the ability to thrive in a fast-paced environment under pressure. I firmly believe that I have many sterling business-oriented qualities like project management, component design engineering, procurement policies and methodologies, corporate standards. These include my attention to detail, persistence, consistency, excellent organizational skills and being multi-skilled. I possess strong leadership qualities with the judgement to make sound decisions under pressure.

My excellent organizational, analytical, interpersonal and verbal/written communication skills hold me in good stead in any environment. This has been tried and tested amongst the various associates I have dealt with. I also have the ability to function effectively in a deadline-driven environment.

The automotive manufacturing environment is unforgiving to delays so commitment is paramount to survival. I see myself as a people's person who, apart from respect, gives customer-service priority and I am able to communicate effectively with people at all levels. I share excellent relationships with my peers.

I am a Mechanical Engineering diplomat with experiences in Hydraulic engineering, mechanical design, project management, parts quality, industrial process development, purchasing, sales and marketing. My significant exposure is on Procurement environment. My strengths are in analysis, strategic sourcing, negotiations, contracts, people management, continuous improvement and root cause analysis.

I am willing to grow with a company and pursue my studies and knowledge further.
