Additional information

Your hobbies

Dear Hiring Manager,
I am very excited to apply for the Driver position/ assistant rigger position . With over three years of experience in the hospitality and driving industries, I am confident that I can proudly serve and benefit this company. Throughout my work history, I've proven my ability to provide exceptional customer service while maintaining efficiency. In my position, I picked up passengers, drove them to their destinations safely and maintained a clean vehicle every shift. I eventually wanted more variety in my work and applied for and a completed an assistant rigging course and I learned how to guide the crane operators to ensure the building materials are placed correctly. I know and can adhere to all safety procedures to reduce the risk of potential accidents and I can help to create a safe working environment.

I can read proficiently and I have active listening skills, so I can follow directions to the letter and I am familiar with reading blueprints.

Thank you for your consideration and I hope to hear from you soon
