What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking a job in a engineering field, in College I did Electrical engineering up untill N6. I have a an experience in electrical but it is not enough. I would like to get an opportunity to gain more experience in order to become an expert in Electrical. I do not mind to work as a general worker or assistant in electrical engineering.

I am confident that my qualifications and skills would make me a perfect fit for the position I have mentioned. I am a fast learner both working independently and in a team work are my favorites.

Thank you.
