What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for a cleaning job or a general worker job.

On a personal level, I am a diligent individual, who sets high standards for myself, both professionally and personally. I am competitive in nature, but accept my failures and prefer to see what them as opportunities to learn from. There are more lessons to be learnt from failing than succeeding. Furthermore, I am an orderly person with a professional outlook to work and personal life. I am very "house proud" and enjoy taking care of my environment, home and personal appearance. I am confident and will continue to develop the necessary educational requirements and skills, Ambition, and motivation to cope with the requirements for a successful career within your company.
