Computer knowledge

I have a strong foundation in computer skills, specifically with Windows operating systems. I've worked extensively with Windows version,10 and 11 and have experience with Microsoft Office applications such as Word, Excel, and PowerPoint

While I haven't worked with other operating systems like macOS or Linux, I'm eager to learn and expand my skill set. I'm a quick learner, and my problem-solving skills and attention to detail will serve me well in adapting to new computer-related tasks.

Conferences, seminars

I've had the opportunity to attend several conferences and seminars in my field, which have greatly contributed to my professional growth. For instance, I attended the photography conference last year, where I gained valuable insights on the latest industry trends and best practices, particularly in portrait photography. I also had the chance to network with peers and thought leaders, which has helped me stay connected with the industry community. Since then, I've applied the skills I learned to improve my photography portfolio and expand my client base.

Additionally, I've participated in seminars on working with insulation and helping sheet metal fabricator at workshop , which have enhanced my skills and knowledge in that area. These experiences have not only broadened my understanding of the industry but also given me the opportunity to learn from experts and share my own experiences with others.
