Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

As a graduate with a Diploma in Public Administration from TUT, I may not seem like a typical candidate for a driving position. However, here are some positive points that could make me a strong candidate:

1. *Transferable skills*: My studies in Public Administration have taught me strong organizational, communication, and problem-solving skills, which can be valuable in a driving role.
2. *Reliability and responsibility*: I've demonstrated my ability to manage tasks and responsibilities during my studies, which could translate to a reliable and responsible driving performance.
3. *Strong work ethic*: Completing a diploma program requires dedication and hard work, which are essential qualities for a driver.
4. *Adaptability*: I've learned to adapt to new situations and challenges, which could serve me well in a dynamic driving environment.
5. *Customer service skills*: My studies have also taught me the importance of providing excellent customer service, which is crucial for interacting with clients.

While my background may be unconventional for a driving role, I'm eager to apply my skills and experience in a new context and learn the necessary skills to become a skilled driver.
