What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I'm looking for a caregiver job and the reason why I decided to do the course is not because of how much it pays or the uniform but the nature of taking care of people is my passion. I took care of my maternal grandmother from 16 years of age when she fell sick with cancer, till she passed away just after I finished my matric. The experience made me fall in love with meeting the needs of those who cannot do things for themselves. I love helping, listening to other people's views and solving problems. I do all this effortlessly and selflessly.
