What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a job that will serve my life and my family. It can be any kind of job I'm willing to learn and I am an energetic person who has a potential I can work well in a team environment and using my own initiative, I have Level 2- in Electrical infrastructure and construction I'm still doing Level 3- this year I also participated as an Assistant Teacher in 2023 where I learned a lot of things also to understand other people's stories and able to solve them as I was working with kids coming from different environments. I also worked at Lima Rural Development as a Health surveyor where we were dealing with interview community based on their health to help those who don't have money to go to hospital having them recognized by Health then our Head supervisor take in charge. I'm a hard working person at my age I'm very proud of myself so far. I also have Code 10 drivers license I think I'm the best candidate for this job because I was born for anything that deals with working other people this can be a blessed starter to my future you won't regret by hiring me.
