What job i'm looking for? My positive points

The line of work I am looking for is in the Graphic design industry. I am creative and welcome any opportunities that push me to use my skillset. There is also working in the event industry as I am very well versed with my interpersonal skills and ensuring everything goes as smoothly as possible. My work experience began in my high school days from being a waiter at Spur to being a sales consultant for a distributor of Stock Market College named Stock Market Performance. I have studied at Pearson Institute of Higher education receiving my Business Management Higher Certificate. For three I studied Visual Communication where I learned to make use of programs from Adobe Suite. I am currently at iTickets working events and I am gaining extensive experience in that industry.
