What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am professionally a young fashion designer, looking to work more in the industry. From Pattern making, CAD, fashion buyer to garment construction, I have a great interest in every field. I am currently doing an internship that focuses in all the above departments, specialising in retail. I have been learning alot and have been more open minded as I've learnt more on the fashion industry that what meets the eye. I am willing to learn more also.
