Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I should be hired, because:

I believe in myself in respect to my capabilities and competencies to execute my duties beyond expectations. I am a confident and strong person with a spontaneous, friendly attitude. I firmly believe in excellent customer service, especially when building lasting and trusting relationships with new and existing customers. Not only do I do what is expected of me, I go far and beyond the extra mile for my employer and customer. I am very hard working, loyal, honest and I practice strict confidentiality and am a little bit of a perfectionist. I can honestly say that I am a definite asset to any employer, company or customer. I have a natural knack for sales and marketing and honestly just need that little foot in the door to prove myself. I am a team player, but equally competent in working independently. I pay strict attention to detail and observe people closely and that aids me in knowing what they might like or dislike. I am professional in anything I do, because I believe your image, personality and word is your trademark and signature move.
