What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Hi, I am a confident, driven individual who is more than capable of learning "on the job". I am a fully qualified and a registered KI and Representative with the FSB and have completed and passed the RE1 and RE5 examinations respectively. I like to be stretched out of my comfort zone and excel when presented with new challenges. I also work well with people, motivating them when necessary and can lead from the front. My strengths lie in mentoring and developing people, growing them into new rolls and strengths. I am fully computer literate and bilingual. I have good communication skills and am always willing to assist the sales team with any issues they may have, helping them to achieve their goals.
