What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am looking for a Callcenter job as I am currently working at the Callcenter and preferably a customer service position. I deal with customer's on a daily basis and I regard myself as a person who excel in doing everything to assist the customer's. I am a person who believe that the customer is always right as I was taught and trained on that. I am patient as I deal with different customer's with different attitudes and personalities daily but I always try by all means to make it my mission to resolve whatever query the customer has called about. I believe that with my experience and enthusiasm I am capable of pleasing and making my employer happy by doing what I do best, which is striving to assist and resolve customer's issues when they call in.
