Curriculum Vitae (CV)

What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am an independent, confident and energetic recently graduated student with a passion for my area of expertise, which is working and communicating with people. I believe in strong moral values and that a balanced lifestyle is important for family, personal and career success. The strong leadership qualities I possess enable me to inspire and motivate others to achieve and exceed expectations on a daily basis. Accuracy, perfection, organisation and preparedness is present in my everyday work and personal life. I do not believe in leaving room for error. I am a team player with a noticeable willingness to work hard and exceed even my own expectations. Two words that describe me the best are loyalty and determination. I never give up and always finish what I start, no matter how hard it may become. I am aware of my strengths and weaknesses and frequently work hard at bettering myself. I focus on learning new lessons from each one of my experiences and from every person I meet. I am someone who cares about my community and fully believe that a positive attitude and a friendly smile can change a person's life (or even one day) for the better. All the abilities and beliefs above mentioned I have developed through learning life experiences, hard work, determination and an excellent support system. I am eager and excited to learn and develop new skills, as well as gain the necessary knowledge to build a successful career for myself in order to support my own family in the future.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Sincerely,

Alouise du Preez
