What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I have studied as a safety officer and i am looking forward to working as one , however i am not limited to only the occupation i am trained in. I am willing to learn and i adapt easily to any work place and work efficiently under pressure i am a fast learner who takes pride in the work set before him to complete and i am so deeply focused in the goals i set as i learn and gain experience along the way. i am experienced in retail sales and marketing and have also worked as a service technician for a non destructive testing company which opened my eyes to see the many opportunities that are out there for anyone to reach.

recently i have worked under a contract with Cbi Telecomms/ATC as a technician and have enjoyed the experience. i am looking for a job that i can commit to as my life time carrier as i grow in it and in my services to my employer.
