What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I believe that my education, skills and experience will ensure that I am deemed a suitable candidate for appointment.

My experience in different sectors such as FMCG, agriculture and the banking sector shows my ability to adapt to new challenges.

I have been involved in 2 change projects on systems. At SABMiller I was part of operation Spine where old amber screen systems were converted to SAP and was involved at Iemas on a similar program as a credit specialist. I adapt easily to change and new systems.

I have received various excellent feedback and incentives on my work input but the outstanding accolade for me was getting a standing ovation from customers at a focus group meeting. It was recognition for the positive influence I had on their business growth by advising and assisting in credit terms to fit them and to improve their profits!

I know I will be an asset that will improve your performance and results.

Kind regards

MJ Viljoen
