What job i'm looking for? My positive points

I am a 28 year lady with 2 children. I am urgently looking for work. Please no chancers. I say the following with respect. I have had my shares with employers not being honest with me. If you expect me to be honest with you, I expect honesty from you too as my employer.

I'm looking for a job where I can grow as a person along with the company and fellow people. I am honest and very strict on rules and protocols when given to me. I'm also a very fast learner. I believe the right person will see my heart in this letter, and won't see it offensive, but rather in a good way.

I've learned in 2010 in my gap year that "offence is taken, not given". That is so true. I want to end by saying, there is not a word "can't" in my vocabulary. When you also tell me I can't do something, well let's just say I'm a challenger. I will do a thing till I get it right, and are satisfied with it. I'm also a good motivator, love it when I can motivate and support people, and also love to work in a team.
