What job i'm looking for? My positive points

A position as an administrator. I was trained as an insurance administrator and had practicals during inseta leanership. I then worked partly as a branch administrator at absa. I worked with absa for 8 years as a bank teller but every time Branch Administrator was on Annual leave, on martenity leave and when she resigned i would work as her stand in. I am a hard worker and can multi task as i was working as a teller and would sometimes be busy drawing branch listings and actioning them. I believe so much in planing in order to archive what i want to archive or to complete a task given. I can go extra mile where theres a need.
