What job i'm looking for? My positive points

Call center agent

This letter is written in motivation of the C.V of Agnes Khensani Sethole.

I am a young, assertive and self-motivated lady who is 36 years old. .I am currently working at NCCS as debt advisor, through my 4 years experience as a debt advisor and conducting monthly financial reporting to clients, I have gained sound knowledge and experience in doing day to day finance activity and also my experience as financial advisor at old mutual group scheme and metropolitan life group scheme.

My intentions are to be an asset to your company by applying to be part of the company's team. I enjoy being hands on and always strive for Excellency when given an opportunity, and I believe those are the needed characteristics in this field, I am eager and willing to learn more I would really appreciate it if your company considers my application. I enjoy working with others and consider myself a good team player and I can work under pressure with minimum supervision and still meet deadline. It is from such standpoint that I believe I will add value to the company and also to enrich myself with more knowledge and experience because I am always eager to learn

I will be very glad if I am given the opportunity to work for your organisation and this will undoubtedly enhance my career as this is a chance for me to enhance my knowledge in finance

Should you wish to interview me, I am available every weekday anytime. I hope to receive communication from you at your earliest convenient time.
